"The Millionaire Baby"

"WHO STOLE THE MILLIONAIRE BABY?"

Everything that Philo touched seemingly turned to gold, and with that gold came worldly comforts, power, social standing and prestige. However, Philo, the millionaire, finally realized that worldly wealth could not buy fatherhood and he mourned and refused to be comforted.

Marion, the wife, surrounded as she was with every luxury, naturally came to think that the touch of Midas was the magic touch in this world; she fondly believed that gold, yellow gold, could bring sunshine and happiness into a childless home; could wield a power to successfully deceive her husband; could buy the bright presence and the happy voices of children; could win Philo from the busy marts of trade into love of home life and proud fatherhood.

Instead of all these things the gold only brought.....?

HEAVY SEAS ARE REPORTED BY I-I. BOATS

Extremely heavy seas along the south coasts of Maui and Hawaii, making it impossible to load cargo at ports in that vicinity, were reported today by the inter-island steamers.

The Kaula, returned from Hilo direct and brought word that she was unable to load sugar at Makakona, and that the sea was extremely rough, with very heavy swells along both the Mahukona and Kaula coasts. Purser H. P. Morton's trip report mentioned the rough seas.

Purser Henry K. Sheldon of the Mauna Loa reported that along the Kona coast the steamer experienced light winds and heavy, high seas, so that at the ports of Hilo, Hoonah, Hoonah and Napoosoo landings could not be made as it was too dangerous. At Napoosoo it was impossible to take on a shipment of cattle. The Mikahala is reported anchored off Olawala.

President J. A. Kennedy of the inter-island said today that two heavy surf boats, one from the Manna Kea, the other from the W. G. Hall, have been wrecked at Mahukona landing in the last three weeks, although tied up at the wharf at the time. Heavy seas broke the lines and dashed them to pieces against the rocks. The boats were worth $350 each.

Edgar Heniques was elected chairman of the committee at large and Mayor John C. Lane chairman of the executive committee at a meeting of the Kamehameha Day celebration committee last night. Jesse Uluhi was appointed secretary of the committee at large and William E. Miles secretary of the executive committee. Members of the two committees will be appointed by the chairmen within a few days.

PINKHAM JUST LISTENS WHEN MAYOR CALLS

Governor Pinkham refused to commit himself when asked this morning whether the reasons set forth by the mayor and a committee of supervisors who called on him yesterday afternoon were sufficient to induce him to call a special session of the legislature. "They just dropped in to talk the matter over," he said. "I didn't have much to say. I sat and listened to them, and told them that I would have to have the matter presented to me officially before I could pay any attention at their request."

The supervisors went to the governor well prepared to present their argument, for William Carden, second deputy city attorney, who had been working on the legal aspect of the situation for two days, accompanied them and the mayor carried with him a pamphlet containing figures that had required several days' work on the part of James Lloyd, assistant city auditor, to compile. Included in the tables were tabulations of the receipts and expenditures of the city for the last three years.

Examination of these figures this morning revealed that the city had an income from taxation of $334,574.98 in 1913 and only $79,114 in 1915. In 1913 the incoming board of supervisors found a cash balance of more than $82,000 on hand. In 1915 there was less than $3000 for the incoming board. The 1913 board had to put but $21,000 in the cash basis fund while the 1915 board had to pay $45,000 into the fund. Elimination of the fund is one of the measures the mayor and the supervisors feel merits the attention of a special session of the legislature. Changes in the frontage tax and sewer laws, increased revenue to meet increased expenses, a new charter and half a dozen minor matters complete the list.

To Honoluluans:

Here's a little straight from the shoulder talk—Saturday night I will bid you goodbye. My work will be done but I want to wind up in grand style, so I am going to bunch up a big bouquet of mysteries—the pick of my four programs—and give it to you all at once. I will MYSTIFY you, then I will ENLIGHTEN you. ALL THE TIME I WILL ENTERTAIN YOU. I will hand you a hundred laughs.

Friday and Saturday nights exceptional amusement values will be on tap. To lend variety I have the greatest dancing act that ever came to Honolulu on my program. Mr. Rowley and Miss Tointon have no equals; they are globe trotters and they have made good everywhere. The whole show associated with me is good and I am going to bunch up a batch of bargains for my last two nights at the Bijou that you cannot afford to miss. After Saturday there will be two classes of people, the "I am glad I went" bunch and the "I am sorry I wasn't there" crowd. In which class will you be?

Yours sincerely,

E. CORAN MARSHALL.
